

LNG DAY AT LTOPS! AN OPPORTUNITY TO LEARN FROM ONE OF LONDON'S LEADING INTERNATIONAL LAW FIRMS

The Honourable Artillery Company
(The Queen's Room)
Armoury House, City Road, London EC1Y 2BQ
+44 020 7382 1537

During the morning and afternoon of 26 January, LTOPS 2024 will feature a two-part seminar on LNG logistics presented by one of London's leading international law firms, Stephenson Harwood followed. These presentations will be followed by a thought-provoking discussion and workshop on CHATGPT and Laytime and Demurrage.

REGISTRATION WITH MORNING COFFEE AND TEA – 10:15 – 10:30

10:30 – 12:30 – THE VOYAGE CHARTER TERMS APPLIED TO LNG CARRIAGE

This session will consider the use of voyage charter terms for LNG vessels, focusing on the vessel's arrival and readiness obligations, and consequences of lateness. The morning session will also examine the reasons for time charter terms being used for LNG single voyages and COAs.

Stuart Beadnall, (Partner, Stephenson Harwood) and Kirsty MacHardy (Partner Stephenson Harwood)

NETWORKING LUNCH – 12:30 – 14:00

14:00 – 16:15 - PERFORMANCE OBLIGATIONS SPECIFIC TO LNG VESSELS

This session will consider the obligations specific to LNG vessels, including scheduled arrival times, cargo tank readiness and owners' use of LNG cargo to achieve guaranteed speed. This analysis will include an examination of the methods of calculating compensation payable by owners for under-performance. Kirsty MacHardy (Partner, Stephenson Harwood) and John Simpson (Partner, Stephenson Harwood)

AFTERNOON BREAK – 16:15 – 16:30

16:30 – 17:30 – CHATGPT AND LAYTIME AND DEMURRAGE ANALYSIS: MYTH VERSUS REALITY.

A complementary discussion and workshop led by Evangelos Efstathiou, CEO, Burmester & Vogel Ltd

This event, which will include a networking buffet lunch and an afternoon break, will be free of charge for LTOPS sponsors. For others attending LTOPS, there will be a small charge of US $350 per person which will help cover the costs of holding this event.
